Electricity

Mains electric shore-power is available to boats properly equipped for shore supply. Electric is available by pre-paid meter cards (available from the Marina); depending on location.

Metered charge per Kwh unit variable to equal supply cost. Charges for metered units include standing charges, monthly demand charge, capacity charge, climate change levy, repair and renewal costs, NICEIC certification costs, maintenance costs and administration costs. The current price per Kwh unit is displayed on the marina office noticeboard; this charge may alter without notice if supply costs alter.

Important notice: Electric supply continuity cannot be guaranteed. Mains electricity is only available to boats with a properly equipped and protected ring-main installation. Electricity is supplied in accordance with OFGEM regulations. Any boat found unattended and "plugged in" will be disconnected.

Terms and Conditions

All berth-holders agree to abide by the standard terms and conditions of mooring and storage as displayed in the Marina office. All owners are required to provide Insurance cover for third party claims of a minimum £3,000,000 and may be asked to produce evidence to this effect. Residential use not permitted.

How to reserve your berth at Broadlands Marina

- Visit Broadlands Marina and see all the facilities for boat owners.
- Please ask a member of staff to show you around the site.
- Ask for a quote for a mooring of your boat
- Check with the Marina staff for the availability of a berth
- Make your choice of the berth for your boat from those currently available.
- Consider whether you want a mains electric supply
- Choose whether you would prefer to pay for your berth by monthly instalments or take advantage of the discounted yearly rate.
- Book your berth! Simply ask a member of the Marina staff who will be pleased to complete all the paperwork with you.
- You can also reserve a berth for later arrival, subject to availability. Simply place a deposit and confirm your arrival date and berth number.
- Make sure you have signed the mooring contract, as well as having adequate Insurance, Broads Licence and Boat Safety Scheme Compliance.
- Bring your boat to Broadlands Marina. Do you need transport? Please ask any Marina staff member and we will be pleased to assist.
